

PRESS RELEASE

CIRCLE Group leads communication activities for the European BoostEDIC M&L project - a project funded by the EU for a total of €15 million, with a contribution of €189,000 to CIRCLE Group - with the aim of accelerating the common European mobility data space.

CIRCLE Group will coordinate stakeholder engagement and dissemination at European level as part of the initiative supporting the European Digital Infrastructure Consortium for Mobility and Logistics Data (EDIC M&L)

Milan, February 26, 2025

Circle S.p.A. (“CIRCLE” or the “Company”) - an Innovative SME listed on the Euronext Growth Milan market, heading the Group specialized in the process analysis and the development of solutions for the digitalisation of the port and intermodal logistics sectors, as well as in the international consultancy on Green Deal and energy transition topics – announces the launch of the BoostEDIC M&L (European Digital Infrastructure Consortium for Mobility & Logistics Data Support Project) initiative, a strategic initiative aimed at accelerating the development of the common European mobility data space.

The project, funded with a total of €15 million under the European Union's Digital Europe Programme (with a contribution of €189,000 to Circle), represents a milestone on the path towards a fully interoperable, data-driven European mobility and logistics ecosystem.

Within a consortium of 25 leading organizations — including Member States, public authorities, research and technology organizations, industry associations, and innovation leaders — Circle Group plays a strategic role in defining and guiding communication and dissemination activities. Through targeted stakeholder engagement initiatives, awareness campaigns, and knowledge-sharing tools, Circle will amplify the project's visibility and ensure its impact at the European level. The goal is to ensure broad understanding and adoption of the project's results, strengthening the consistency and interoperability of national and sectoral initiatives.

The BoostEDIC M&L project supports the development of the common European mobility data space, including through financial support from third parties, which will enable the implementation of cross-border use cases based on the sharing of mobility and logistics data. These use cases will be implemented in several Member States, promoting interoperability, data reuse, and the dissemination of best practices.

The project also plays a key role in supporting the establishment of the future European Digital Infrastructure Consortium for Mobility and Logistics Data (EDIC M&L). The initiative aims to build a sustainable European framework for collaboration on mobility and logistics data, develop a Knowledge Hub to facilitate access, sharing, and reuse of data, define a coordinated European roadmap, identify and fill key gaps in existing data infrastructures, and demonstrate, through concrete use cases, the value of interoperable data ecosystems.

Alexio Picco, Managing Director of Circle Group, commented: “BoostEDIC M&L represents a crucial milestone towards a truly integrated European mobility data ecosystem. At Circle, we are proud to offer our expertise in communication and engagement with European stakeholders to ensure that the project's results reach all relevant communities, helping to transform the vision of a common European mobility data space into concrete, scalable, and sustainable solutions.”

The 48-month project involves European organisations from six EU Member States, including research institutes, industry leaders and public authorities. Over the next four years, the initiative will deliver concrete solutions for a digital, efficient and sustainable transport system.
