

Moody's downgrades BFF's Ratings and places them on review for downgrade. Deposit ratings remain Investment Grade

Milan, 1st April 2026 – BFF Bank (“BFF” or the “Bank”) informs that the rating agency Moody's today downgraded all ratings and assessments of BFF by one notch and placed them on review for downgrade, including Adjusted BCA. The latter received an additional one-notch negative adjustment for Strategy, Risk Appetite and Governance to “ba3” from “ba2”. BFF's long-term (LT) and short-term (ST) deposit ratings remain Investment Grade at “Baa3”/“Prime-3”, respectively.

The downgrade of BFF's BCA to “ba3” from “ba2” was primarily driven by the potential impacts of the Bank of Italy's regulatory measure announced on 29th March 2026, for which reference is made to the information already set out in the Bank's press release issued on the same date.

The review for downgrade will primarily focus on the implications of the Bank of Italy's findings and remediation measures on BFF's capital position, its business volumes and profitability, as well as the stability of its funding and liquidity levels.

To summarise, the updated ratings assigned to BFF by Moody's are:

- Baseline Credit Assessment, downgraded to “ba3” from “ba2”
