

BFF: Luigi Lubelli appointed as Chief Financial Officer

Milan, 15th June 2026 – BFF Bank S.p.A. (“BFF” or the “Bank”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Luigi Lubelli as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective as of today. The role has been held on an interim basis by Giuseppe Sica, Chief Executive Officer and General Manager of BFF.

Luigi Lubelli has over thirty years of international financial sector experience and has held senior management positions at leading banking, insurance and investment institutions, including Group Chief Financial Officer at Assicurazioni Generali and Chief Financial Officer at Allfunds Bank. During his career, Mr. Lubelli also spent more than a decade in senior roles in finance and risk management at MAPFRE, where he served as Group Chief Risk Officer and Deputy General Manager for Risk and Capital Markets. At the beginning of his career, he worked for international financial institutions including Morgan Stanley and Citibank. He has also served as an independent board member of internationally listed and regulated companies. Luigi Lubelli will assume the role subject to the successful completion of the regulatory checks required under applicable law.

Giuseppe Sica, Chief Executive Officer of BFF Bank, commented: “On behalf of all BFF colleagues, I would like to welcome Luigi as Chief Financial Officer. His vast experience gained at international financial sector institutions will be invaluable as we define the next strategic chapter for BFF pursuing a diversified and profitable growing business. I look forward to working with Luigi to create value for all stakeholders.”
