

Ferdinando Brandi appointed as Vice President Factoring & Lending of BFF Bank

Milan, 30th September 2026 – BFF Bank S.p.A. ("BFF", the "Bank" or the "Group") announces the appointment of Ferdinando Brandi as Vice President Factoring & Lending, effective 1st October 2026, reporting directly to Chief Executive Officer and General Manager, Giuseppe Sica.

In this role, Mr. Brandi will contribute to the development of the Bank's business and credit model, overseeing and supporting the development of the Group's Factoring & Lending activities, while leveraging his extensive managerial and specialist experience gained in the banking and financial industry.

Mr. Brandi has substantial expertise in traditional lending, factoring and corporate finance, and risk management. Among other roles, he served as CEO of UniCredit Factoring, one of Europe's leading factoring companies, and as a member of the Supervisory Board of Pekao Factoring in Poland. He also gained significant international experience within the UniCredit Group as Executive Vice President, Head of Non-Core Portfolio.

Subsequently, he served as CEO of several companies within the Collextion Group, a private company specializing in the management and collection of receivables from the Italian Public Administration.

Most recently, he held the position of Head of Product Factories at Banco Desio, further strengthening the expertise that he will bring to BFF, in support of the Group's Factoring & Lending offering.

This press release is available on-line on BFF Group's website www.bff.com within the Investors > PR & Presentations > Press Releases section.
